M. C. PADAM,
Under Secretary (Judicial).

Ordinance No. 4 of 1975.

THE HIMACHAL PRADESH CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES (AMENDMENT) ORDINANCE, 1975

Promulgated by the Governor of Himachal Pradesh in the Twenty-sixth Year of the Republic of India.

An Ordinance further to amend the Himachal Pradesh Co-operative Societies Act, 1958 (Act No. 3 of 1969).

Whereas the Legislative Assembly of Himachal Pradesh is not in session and the Governor is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it necessary for him to take immediate action;

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by clause (1) of Article 213 of the Constitution of India, the Governor of Himachal Pradesh is pleased to promulgate the following Ordinance:—

Short title and commencement.

1. (1) This Ordinance may be called the Himachal Pradesh Co-operative Societies (Amendment) Ordinance, 1975.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

Insertion of
new section
11-A.

2. After section 11 of the Himachal Pradesh Co-operative Societies Act, 1968 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), the following new section shall be inserted, namely:—

3 of 19

“11-A. Power of the Registrar, to direct amendment of bye-laws.—(1) If it appears to the Registrar that an amendment of bye-laws of a society is necessary or desirable in the public interest or in the interest of the society or in the interest of cooperative movement, he may call upon the society in writing to make the requisite amendment within such time as he may specify.

(2) If the society fails to make the amendment within the time specified, the Registrar may, after giving the society an opportunity of being heard, register such amendment and issue to the society a copy of such amendment certified by him. With effect from the date of registration of such amendment in the aforesaid manner the bye-laws shall be deemed to have been duly amended and the bye-laws as amended shall be binding on the society and its members.

(3) The certified copy issued under sub-section (2) shall be conclusive evidence that the amendment has been duly registered.”

Insertion of
new section
14-A.

3. After section 14 of the principal Act, the following new section 14-A shall be inserted, namely:—

“14-A. Power to direct amalgamation, conversion and re-organisation of societies.—(1) Where the Registrar is satisfied that it is essential or desirable in the public interest or in the interest of co-operative movement or for the purpose of securing the proper management of any society or societies, that two or more societies should be amalgamated or should be re-organised or should be converted into any other class of society or that any society or societies should transfer assets and liabilities thereof in whole or in part in equal proportion to the total assets and liabilities, to any other society, then notwithstanding anything contained in the last preceding section but subject to the provisions of this section, the Registrar may order such amalgamation or re-organisation or conversion or transfer of assets and liabilities of such society or societies, as the case may be, and with such constitution, property, rights, interests, liabilities, duties and obligations as may be specified in the order.

- (2) No order shall be made under this section unless the Registrar, after inviting the suggestions and objections in writing from the concerned society or societies or members or creditors thereof and also the concerned financing Bank or Banks, has considered and made such modifications in the proposed order as may seem to him desirable in the light of such suggestions and objections, which may be received by him within sixty days from the date of inviting such suggestion and objection.
- (3) The order referred to in sub-section (1) may contain such incidental, consequential and supplemental provisions as may, in the opinion of the Registrar, be necessary to give effect to the amalgamation or the re-organisation or the conversion or the transfer of assets and liabilities as the case may be.
- (4) Every member or creditor of such of the societies to be amalgamated or re-organised or converted or whose assets and liabilities are to be transferred, who has objected to the scheme of such an amalgamation or re-organisation or conversion or transfer of assets and liabilities under sub-section (2) of this section and his objection remains unsatisfied, within the period specified in the order, shall be entitled to receive his share or interest or deposit or loan or other dues, as the case may be.
- (5) On the issue of an order under sub-section (1) the provisions contained in sub-section (7) of section 14 shall apply to the Societies so amalgamated or re-organised as if such an amalgamation or re-organisation was made under that section."

4. For the existing section 35 of the principal Act, the following new section 35 shall be substituted and after section 35 so constituted, the following new section 35-A shall be inserted, namely:—

of section 35 and insertion of section
35 A.

"35. Nominees of the Government and other nominees on the committee of co-operative societies.—(1) (a) Where the State Government:—

- (i) has subscribed to the share capital of a co-operative society; or
- (ii) has assisted indirectly in the formation or augmentation of the share capital of a co-operative society as provided under section 48; or
- (iii) has guaranteed the repayment of principal and payment of interest on loans and advances to a society;

the State Government or any authority specified by the State Government in this behalf shall have the right to nominate not more than three members or one-third of the total number of the members of the committee of the Society whichever is less:

Provided that where the Government has subscribed to the share capital of a co-operative society to the extent of five lakhs of rupees or more the Government may, notwithstanding anything contained in the bye-laws of the society, nominate another member in addition to those nominated in the aforesaid manner and appoint him as Managing Director.

- (b) Where the employer has contributed to the share capital of a co-operative society of his employees to the extent of rupees five thousand or more, the employer shall have right to nominate two members or one-third of the total members, whichever is less, on the committee of such society.
- (c) Where any financing institution notified in this behalf by the Government has provided finance to a co-operative society, such financing institution shall have the right to nominate one member on the committee.
- (2) A member nominated on the committee of a co-operative society under sub-section (1) shall hold office during the pleasure of the State Government or the specified authority or the employer or the financing institution, as the case may be.
- (3) Where in a co-operative society in which shares have been subscribed or liability by way of guarantee for borrowing has been undertaken by the Government, exceeding fifty per centum of the working capital of the society, a difference of opinion in respect of any matter arises between any member of the committee nominated under sub-section (1) (a) and other members thereof, the matter shall be referred by the committee to the Government whose decision thereon shall be final and will operate as if the same were a decision taken by the committee.

35-A. Power to Registrar of constitute new committee in certain cases.—

- (1) Where in any co-operative society, a committee constituted in accordance with the provisions of this Act, rules and bye-laws does not exist, the Registrar may, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act or rule or bye-laws, constituted by notification a committee for such society consisting of such number of members and not exceeding eleven out of whom not less than one-third shall be share-holders of such society, as he may deem fit:

Provided that if the number of the members of the committee so constituted is less than eleven, the Registrar may, from time to time, add a member or members to the committee.

- (2) A committee constituted under sub-section (1) shall be deemed to be a committee for all the purposes of this Act, rules and bye-laws and shall continue to function for a period of two years or until such period as a committee for such society is constituted in accordance with the provisions of this Act, rules and bye-laws, whichever expires earlier:

Provided that the Government may by notification extend the period of two years so as not to exceed in the aggregate three years.”

Substitution
of section

5. For existing section 37 of the principal Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

“37. Supersession of committee.—(1) If, in the opinion of the Registrar, a committee of any co-operative society or any member thereof persistently makes default or is negligent in the performance of the duties imposed on it or him by this Act or the rules or the bye-laws or commits any act which is prejudicial to the interests of the society or its members, the Registrar, may, after giving such committee or member, as the case may be, an opportunity to state its or his objections, if any, by order in writing—

(a) remove the committee, and

(i) order fresh election to the committee, or

(ii) appoint one or more administrators who need not be members of the society, to manage the affairs of the society for a period not exceeding one year specified in the order which period may at the discretion of the Registrar, be extended from time to time, so however, that the aggregate period does not exceed five years; or

(b) remove the member and get the vacancy filled up for the remaining period of the outgoing member, according to the provisions of this Act, the rules and the bye-laws.

(1-A) Where the Registrar, while proceeding to take action under sub-section (1) is of the opinion that suspension of the committee or any member during the period of proceedings is necessary in the interest of the co-operative society, he may suspend such committee or member, as the case may be, and where the committee is suspended, make such arrangement as he thinks proper for the management of the affairs of the society till the proceedings are completed:

Provided that if the committee, member so suspended is not removed, it or he shall be re-instated and the period of suspension shall count towards its or his term.

- (2) The Registrar may fix such remuneration for the administrator as he may think fit. Such remuneration shall be paid out of the funds of the society.
- (3) The administrator shall, subject to the control of the Registrar and to such instructions as he may from time to time give, have powers to perform all or any of the functions of the committee or of any officer of the society and take all such actions as may be required in the interest of the society.
- (4) The administrator shall, at the expiry of his term of office arrange for the constitution of a new committee in accordance with the bye-laws of the society.
- (5) Before taking any action under sub-section (1) in respect of a co-operative society, the Registrar shall consult the financing institutions to which it is indebted.
- (6) A member who is removed under sub-section (1) may be disqualified for being elected to any committee for such period not exceeding three years as the Registrar may fix and the said period shall commence after the expiry of the term of the committee from which he is removed.”.

Amendment
of section

6. The existing third proviso appearing in section 47 of the principal Act shall be substituted by the following proviso, namely:—

“Provided further that no charge on land need be created if the amount of loan advanced is less than such amount as may be fixed by the State Government from time to time by a notification and such loan may be allowed to any member on his furnishing two sureties from the fellow members.”.

Amendment
of section
52.

7. In sub-section (1) of section 52 of the principal Act, the words and sign coma “movable property”, shall be inserted after the words “a first charge upon” and before the words “the crops”.

Insertion of
section
90-A.

8. After section 90 of the principal Act, the following new section 90-A shall be inserted, namely:—

“90-A. Recovery of crop loans.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 72 or section 73 or section 87, a co-operative society undertaking the financing of crops or seasonal agricultural finance, may apply to the Registrar for the recovery of arrears of any sum advanced by the society to any of its members on account of the financing of crops or seasonal agricultural finance and shall attach with such application a statement of accounts in respect of such arrears.

- (2) On receiving an application under sub-section (1), the Registrar may, after making such enquiries as he deems fit and after affording the member concerned an opportunity of being heard, grant a certificate for recovery of the amount stated therein to be due as such arrears.
- (3) Where the Registrar is satisfied that a co-operative society has failed to take action under sub-section (1) against any of its members, the Registrar on his own motion, may after making such enquiries as he deems fit and affording an opportunity of being heard to the member concerned, proceed to grant a certificate referred to in sub-section (2).
- (4) A certificate granted by the Registrar under this section shall be final and conclusive proof of the arrears due therein and the same shall be recoverable according to the law for the time being in force for the recovery of the arrears of land revenue.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section the expression:—

- (a) “financing of crops” means advancing of loans for raising of crop during the ploughing season or later for ploughing, sowing, harrowing, weeding, harvesting, purchase of seeds or manure or for such other agricultural purposes as may be prescribed, such loans being repayable during season when the crops for which the loans were advanced are harvested;
- (b) “seasonal agricultural finance” means advancing of loans for such agricultural purposes as may be prescribed, such loans being repayable on or before such date as may be prescribed in this behalf by the State Government and different dates may be prescribed for different loans.”
